

TEACHER OF MATHS/COMPUTER SCIENCE

PART TIME – 0.6–0.7FTE

Required from September 2024

Suitable for ECTs

GDST has its own teacher pay scale

Applications are invited for the position of part-time Computer Science and Mathematics Teacher from September 2024.

Computer Science is a popular subject and each year we have a healthy cohort of GCSE and A-level Computer Scientists. The ability to teach Computer Science to A-level, as well as GCSE, would be advantageous, but not essential. It is feasible that this role could focus on Key Stage 3 Computer Science teaching, depending on the skill set of the candidate.

The Mathematics department sets high expectations for all students and provides differentiation and challenge to enable all to reach their potential, encouraging intellectual interest and curiosity. The successful applicant will be required to teach Key Stage 3 and GCSE Mathematics. The ability to teach A level mathematics is desirable but not essential.

About Norwich High School for Girls

Norwich High School for Girls was founded in 1875 and is an independent day school for girls from 3-18 with approximately 600 pupils. The school is part of The Girls' Day School Trust (GDST), the largest independent school group in the UK. It is at the forefront of education for girls and a strong voice in promoting opportunities for young women.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package and a strong professional development programme. These benefits include:

- Competitive salaries and pay progression
- Membership of the GDST flexible pension scheme (up to 18% employer contribution and flexibility to generate a pay top-up of up to 10% of pensionable salary in lieu of pension)
- Access to extensive professional development opportunities
- Training grants for qualifications
- Free life assurance benefit
- A discount of up to 50% on fees for children at GDST schools
- Free hot lunch during term time
- Free hot beverages all year round
- Access to Fitness Suite and Swimming Pool, subject to availability and induction
- Interest free loans for training, computer purchase loans and travel season ticket loans
- A Cycle to Work scheme
- Onsite parking
- Access to our free Employee Assistance Programme
- Competitive terms and conditions of employment

A letter of application addressed to the Head (Miss Alison Sefton) should be included with your application form. Please note that CVs without a completed school application form cannot be considered.

Closing date: Monday 15th April. Interview date: TBC

The GDST is committed to diversity, inclusion and real change: a family where every individual is valued, respected and included. The GDST is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children, and applicants must be willing to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service. Candidates shortlisted for interview will be subject to an online search. This isn't part of the shortlisting process - candidates will have an opportunity to address any areas of concern at interview.
